

Live Heat

From the moment you strike a match and touch it to the wick, a powerful live heat radiates from the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

which burns for 9 hours with one filling of its brass font, which holds 4 quarts.

Automatic Smokeless Device

which makes smoke impossible, even when the heater is handled by a novice. Permits instant removal for cleaning.

There is no danger of turning the wick too high—this automatic smokeless device prevents it.

This means a perfect, odorless, smokeless heat that carries comfort, cheer and satisfaction.

Beautifully finished in Japan or Nickel—no cast iron to break—legs, base and top stamped out of one piece of steel—damper top—aluminum metal window frames that heat will not tarnish—handle never hot. Made in various styles and finishes.

STORY SPOILED.

The very interesting story from Memphis that Col. James Gordon, the new senator from Mississippi, who succeeds the late Mr. McLaure, had in the closing days of the war been compelled to flee to Canada, and that a reward of $10,000 had been offered by the government for his capture, because of his complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, is denied at the War Department.

A careful examination of the official records of the civil war and a study of all the advertisements issued during the war, offering rewards for the capture of fugitives, failed to disclose the name of Colonel Gordon anywhere. The records of the trial of Booth's accomplices were scrutinized, as well as all the military orders issued by the War Department during the entire period of the trial, and nowhere was there any reference to Colonel Gordon.

One of the most sensational plays at the Casino at Monte Carlo occurred this week. On Tuesday a French-Canadian of the name of Creuzier, accompanied by an Italian, whose identity has not been revealed, began staking maximum on "the draw." Creuzier won $116,000, but by noon yesterday he had lost $112,000. Nothing daunted, he kept up his high play, and last night had recovered it all. The bank had to be replenished several times.
